College Hymn

Guardian bright, our Alma Mater,
Molder of our hearts and minds,
Light high visions in thy daughters
And a loyalty that binds.

Gladly do we lift our voices
Pledging thee our faith and love.
Teach our minds and hearts to follow
Him who leads us from above.

Living truth is ever ringing—
Tune our ears to hear that chime.
Lasting wisdom peace is bringing—
Lead us in her way sublime.

Queens, to thee we pledge our spirits,
Ever thine, a loyal band.
Queens, thy praises we are singing,
Grateful for thy guiding hand.

Mrs. Ann S. Gebhardt
Dean of Students

Dear Queens Students:

It is a pleasure to extend a warm welcome to the entire student body and a very special welcome to the class of 1971. We eagerly look forward to your arrival and the place you will make for yourselves at Queens, knowing that you will enrich our community by your coming and by sharing with us your high ideals, your zest and enthusiasm for learning, and your many gifts and talents.

We, in turn, earnestly hope that this is a most successful venture for you and that—being caught up in the spirit of the college—you will strengthen those values which we hold most dear: integrity, personal honor, and respect for one another.

Here at Queens there are many people who want to help you make your college years the most worthwhile and meaningful years you have ever experienced.

I wish for you fine academic achievement and a happy life at Queens as we begin the new term together.

Sincerely yours,

Ann S. Gebhardt
Dean of Students

DONNA LANEY
President
Student Government Association

Dear Students,

It is almost time for the academic year to begin, and it is with a great deal of excitement and anticipation that I extend to you a warm welcome into the Student Government Association of Queens College. I am looking forward to your arrival, because I am sure that with your help progressive strides can be made.

The Student Government Association is a vital force on the campus because you—the students—are the voice of Student Government. Through it you have an integral part in the deliberations of the college. Student Government is based on the assumption that, if students are given a certain freedom and independence in governing matters, they will mature in their acceptance of the responsibilities which are part of this freedom. It is a privilege for each student to give her individual ideas, support, and cooperation to this organization which is her spokesman.

One of the most important and respected parts of Student Government is the honor system which is based upon a code of personal honor, individual responsibility, and cooperative effort. The honor code expresses our mutual faith in the integrity of each student.

During the past year we made changes in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Student Government Association. These changes will make this year a "first" in many respects. I know that this will be an exciting and rewarding year when our goals are achieved through the active participation of each member of the community.

Sincerely yours,

Donna Laney

President
Student Government Association

Student Life

Religious Life

Queens is a Christian liberal arts college. This fact is expressed in the aims of the college as follows:

> The college is healthfully Christian. The attitudes and religious loyalties of the students and faculty are important. Christian emphasis manifests itself in the acceptance of responsibility, a sense of vocation, consideration of others, and loyalty to the church. The emphasis is on the substance of Christian growth. It is not on an impoverishing regulation of behavior or the intemperate parading of religious claims and expressions.

This aim is implemented through the Queens Christian Association and its activities, through the expectation that each student will attend the church of her choice regularly, through attendance at chapel services, and by participation in special religious functions.

Judicial Board

PAMELA WOODALL SPENCE
Chairman

The purpose of the Judicial Board is to encourage a spirit of honesty and of honor for its own sake by furthering the understanding and effectiveness of the Honor Code.

When a student signs the honor pledge, she accepts the honor system which is one of the most esteemed characteristics of the college. She must accept the responsibilities of the system in order to enjoy the freedom and privilege of living in a community governed by mutual trust and honor. The three fundamentals which constitute the Honor Code are as follows:

That each student be truthful at all times.

That each student respect the property of others.

That each student be entirely honest on tests, examinations, term papers, and all pledged work as designated by instructors.

The Judicial Board is composed of seven elected students including a student chairman, three elected faculty members, the Dean of the College, and the Dean of Students. The Judicial Board has the duty of investigating and taking action in any case involving a violation of the Honor Code. It may also hear cases appealed from the Resident Student Council. The penalty which may be set by the Judicial Board is suspension unless there are extreme, extenuating circumstances. All decisions are reviewed by the President of the College.

Each student at the college is responsible for upholding the Honor Code and for reporting to the Judicial Board any violation of it.

Branches of the Student Government Association

THE FRESHMAN ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Orientation Committee serves in helping new students in their successful orientation to college life. Through early contacts with incoming students, the members of the Freshman Advisory Council, a subdivision of the Orientation Committee, help their advisees to become a part of campus life. Students to act in this capacity are chosen because of their dependability and willingness to accept responsibility.

THE SOCIAL STANDARDS COMMITTEE

The Social Standards Committee has as its primary purpose the promotion of good etiquette, attractive personal appearance, and gracious living. The committee sponsors after dinner coffees and the fashion show during Orientation Week and assists with various social functions throughout the year.

THE DINING HALL COMMITTEE

The Dining Hall Committee is responsible for all dining room activities.

THE DANCE COMMITTEE

The Dance Committee is responsible for the organizing of social functions. Among these functions are the annual Orientation Dance, the Christmas Dance, and the May Day Dance.

THE BUDGET COMMITTEE

The Budget Committee is composed of the treasurers of the various campus organizations and publications, and the chairman is the treasurer of the Student Government Association. Its purpose is to formulate the budget for student activities.

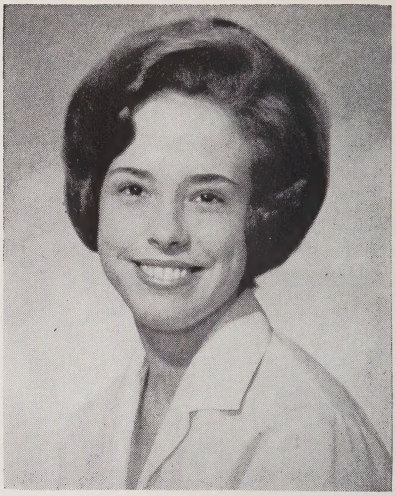
THE HANDBOOK COMMITTEE

The Handbook Committee functions as the agent of Student Government through which this handbook is compiled and edited. The editor is appointed by the president of the Student Government Association, and the editor then selects her committee.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Queens College is a member of the National Student Association, a federation composed of approximately 300 colleges and universities in the United States. There are more than a million students represented by N.S.A.; they are members of the association through their locally elected student government. N.S.A. is concerned with creating the interest and the responsibility necessary for good campus, community, and world citizenship.

Resident Student Government



Bonnie Jean Risher
President

Organization and Function

Resident Student Council is composed of a president, first vice-president, second vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and the presidents of the various residence halls. It is the duty of the council, with the advice of the office of the Dean of Students, to make and carry out regulations concerning the activities of the resident students.

Each residence hall has a House Council composed of the house president as chairman, the residing members of the Resident Student Council, and members at large. The House Council is responsible for dormitory living and house discipline in accordance with the merit system.

The House Councils hold their meetings weekly on Monday nights at 6:30 p.m. For this reason the campus is closed each Monday from 6:30 p.m. until 7:15 p.m. If a student must be away from campus at the time of this meeting, she must notify her house president.

Resident Student Council meets at 7:15 p.m. each Monday.

Regulations Concerning Dormitory Life

Dormitory Hours:

The dormitories are opened at 6:30 a.m. every morning and are closed at the following times:

11:00 p.m.	Monday through Thursday
12:30 a.m.	Friday (Saturday morning)
12:30 a.m.	Saturday (Sunday morning)
11:30 p.m.	Sunday

In order to enter the dormitory after closing hours or to leave the dormitory before 6:30 a.m., a student must obtain special permission from the Dean of Students Office.

On the night students return from a holiday, the dormitory will close at 12:00 midnight and will reopen at 6:30 a.m. the following morning. Students who have some transportation conflict, according to the dormitory hours, must make other arrangements with the approval of parents or guardians. Resident Student Council will handle unexcused late returns.

Study Hours:

Freshmen shall observe a closed study period from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. each Monday through Thursday. Closed study is to be observed in dormitory rooms, the library, the language laboratory, and the pool in the physical education building. Special permission may be obtained through the Dean of Students Office to attend educational events during this time.

Spending the Night in Another Dormitory or Room:

Friday and Saturday nights are the only nights for which permission will be granted to spend the night in another residence hall. This permission must be obtained from the president of the dormitory to which the student goes. Students must sign out on their white wall cards and sign the guest register in the dormitory in which they are visiting. Only seniors may spend the night in other upperclass residence halls during the week.

Guests Spending the Night in Dormitories:

All overnight guests must be registered in the Dean of Students Office and at the college switchboard. Guests must sign out on her hostess's wall card, and Queens students will be responsible for any violation of Resident Student Council rules and regulations by her visitor.

Freshmen are not permitted to have overnight guests Sunday through Thursday without special permission from the Dean of Students Office.

Only upperclassmen may spend the night in another room in their own dormitory during the week.

Sorority House Slumber Parties:

Permission to have a slumber party in one of the sorority houses must be obtained from the office of the Dean of Students. (Full instructions will be given by each sorority president.) Each sorority may have two slumber parties a semester to be held on Friday and Saturday nights only. Dormitory closing hours must be observed in the sorority house.

Spending the Night in the Infirmary:

Students admitted to the Infirmary overnight should so indicate on their white wall cards and notify the house president and resident counselor.

Social Privileges:

Upperclassmen may use their own discretion as to the number of social privileges taken during the week.

All freshmen may have social privileges on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. They may have social privileges on campus on Monday through Thursday nights from 10:00-11:00. Freshmen may have unexpected visitors for fifteen minutes during the week from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. When meeting these fifteen minute visitors, the students must sign out. If the visit exceeds fifteen minutes it is considered a late return.

Second semester freshmen with a 2.5 average may use their own discretion as to the number of privileges to be taken during the week.

Transfers will have privileges according to the class standing they are given on entrance to Queens College.

Upperclassmen may go off campus in a group of two persons after the day time limit. Freshmen, however, must be in a group of three persons. Day time limit is 7:00 p.m. When leaving campus after this hour, students must sign out on their white cards.

A freshman may be accompanied by one upperclassman.

Dating:

For the first four weeks, freshmen must double date.

When dating both off and on campus, students must sign out on the white card.

Dates may be entertained on campus in such places as the parlors of Burwell Hall; the Jernigan Student Center; and the lounges of Harris, Wallace, Belk, Albright, and Barnhardt Residence Halls. Dates may also be entertained in the sorority houses.

For residents of Morrison, Long, and Watkins, all dates must be met in Burwell Hall. All dates will be dismissed at the front of these residence halls. Residents of Wallace, Harris, Albright, Belk, and Barnhardt may meet and dismiss their dates in the lounges of these residence halls.

Special Permissions: (S.P.)

Special permissions on the yellow card may be obtained in the office of the Dean of Students from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. on Monday through Friday. These must be obtained at least 24 hours ahead of time. Resident Counselors may give special permission during their posted hours for the following:

Going to one's own home.
Going to the home of a Queens student.

Special permissions are needed for the following:

Spending the night away from campus on any occasion.
Late returns to campus.
Any other deviation from the rules.

Failure to get special permission will be dealt with by Resident Student Council.

Permissions from Home:

Queens College assumes that entering students have already developed the maturity to be responsible citizens in all areas of college life, both academic and social. The college endeavors to create a situation in which values may grow in depth, intellectual attainment may be realized, and a sense of belonging in this college community may be achieved. The college administration believes that students should be given responsibility that will help them develop self discipline and respect for their college citizenship. On these principles the college recognizes the right and the obligations of parents to grant or withhold permission in specific areas.

The completed permission form must be returned to the Dean of Students Office in order that a student may spend the night away from the college at places other than her own home, the homes of Queens College students, or homes in Charlotte. A telephone call or a written invitation to the student must go to the office of the Dean of Students for one to spend the night at a home in Charlotte.

Weekend Absences:

Faculty regulations concerning class attendance take precedence over social regulations. Social regulations governing weekend absences from campus do not excuse students from absences from classes.

During the week only seniors may spend the night away from the college. This will be counted as one weekend.

The number of weekend absences allowed is determined by class standing and scholastic averages:

Students who are on the Dean's List and maintain their standing are not governed by the listing below and may have unlimited weekend absences.

Seniors may have 12 weekend absences.

Juniors may have 10 weekend absences.

Sophomores may have 8 weekend absences.

First semester freshmen may have 6 weekend absences.

Second semester freshmen who have a B average (1.5-2.4) may have 8 weekends.

Freshmen may begin taking their allotted weekends after the first four weeks of classes.

A student may take a "long weekend" which will count as two of her regular weekend absences. Long weekends may begin on Thursday and end on Sunday at 11:30 p.m., or they may begin on Friday and end on Monday at 6:30 p.m.

Each over-night, beyond two, taken in succession counts as an additional weekend absence. Leaving before a holiday begins counts as one weekend.

Unexpected Late Returns to Campus:

When returning late to the campus because of various difficulties, it is necessary to call the Dean of Students Office, 332-7121, to let the person on duty know of the difficulties. This does not, however, automatically excuse the late return. The student must report to Burwell Hall when she returns to campus so that the security officer can escort her to her residence hall. All returns within the ten-minute merit system provision will be covered by the merits, and students returning more than ten minutes late will be brought before House Council or Resident Student Council.

Informal Dress:

It is permissible to wear bermudas in the following places or on the following occasions:

Saturday breakfast and lunch.

Sunday breakfast and supper.

On dates only when the occasion calls for them.

On bicycles.

Bermudas are not to be worn off campus when walking to the shopping centers, etc.

Smoking:

Smoking is not permitted on the campus grounds or while walking outside. Violations will be dealt with by the individual house councils.

Smoking is permitted on campus in the following places:

In all residence halls.
In the Jernigan Student Center.
In the sorority houses.
In the parlors of Burwell Hall.
In the Everett Library smoking lounge.

Drinking:

Queens College does not approve the use of alcoholic beverages. This judgment is expressed both in regulations and in the expectation that students will exercise self-discipline and mature judgment. In this, as in all other areas of behavior, students are expected to act so as not to embarrass themselves, their fellow students, their families, or the college.

Students are prohibited from the possession or use of alcoholic beverages on the campus of the college, or at any function, or on any trip sponsored by the college.

Students are not permitted to return to the campus under the influence of alcoholic beverages.

These regulations and principles apply equally to resident and non-resident students.

Violations of these regulations and principles will be judged by the Resident Student Council or the Day Student Council. Violations will be subject to a penalty which may be suspension.

Students who are not in sympathy with these regulations and principles or students whose parents are not in sympathy with them should not apply for admission to Queens College.

Merit System: 10 Merit Semester Plan

The following comprises the infractions and proposed number of merits to be deducted from the student's original 10 merits granted her at the beginning of each semester:

Merits	Infractions
5	Late returns; 1 demerit for each minute up to five. Six to 10 minutes late is an automatic 5 demerits.
3	Improper chaperonage.
3	Failure to keep phone duty.
2	Failure to sign out.
2	Failure to keep closed study (Freshmen).
2	Breaking Freshmen closed study (Upperclassmen).
2	Out of room after dormitory closing hours (Freshmen).
1	Failure to sign in.
1	Failure to attend a required dormitory meeting.
1	Breaking closed campus on Monday night.
1	Improper dress.
1	Excessive noise.
1	Breaking Busy and Asleep signs.

When infractions total more than the granted 10 merits, the student will appear before House Council.

Attending Church:

Students are expected to uphold their personal responsibility concerning church attendance.

Automobile Regulations:

Only juniors with a 1.5 accummulative average or a 1.5 average from the preceding semester and seniors may have cars or the use of cars on the campus. Juniors must maintain the 1.5 average first semester in order to have the use and possession of cars for the second semester of their junior year.

Queens College students may take any means of transportation (including driving a car) when leaving or returning to the college for a weekend or a holiday signed out on the special permission (yellow) cards. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors without a 1.5 average must have parental consent each time a car is used for this purpose. This does not mean that a student may have a car or the use of a car on campus.

Any infraction of the rule will be dealt with by Resident Student Council and the Dean of Students.

Juniors with a 1.5 and seniors must sign the agreement for the use of cars before the privilege is granted.

All students may drive their parents' cars when their parents are visiting in Charlotte.

Junior and senior resident students receiving scholarship assistance are not permitted to have possession of cars on the campus. (Scholarship assistance does not include token grants.)

Special permission will not be granted to students when practice teaching.

Day Student Government

Betty Sue Brown
President

Activities for Day Students

Day Students are urged to participate in all college activities, but they will find a special interest in sponsoring the following events:

The summer party for new day students.

The welcoming of freshmen and transfers to Queens.

The after-dinner coffee held during Orientation Week.

The provision of toys, food, and clothing for some worthy family each Christmas.

Money-making projects for the Day Student Scholarship fund are the "Black Friday Auction" and the annual bake sale.

Resident—Non-Resident Student Relations

Visiting:

Day students are invited to visit in the college dormitories over the weekends. Day students visiting in the dormitories overnight are requested to register with the Dean of Students and at the college switchboard.

Day students wishing to have resident students visit in their homes should have the "official" hostess call the office of the Dean of Students during the morning office hours.

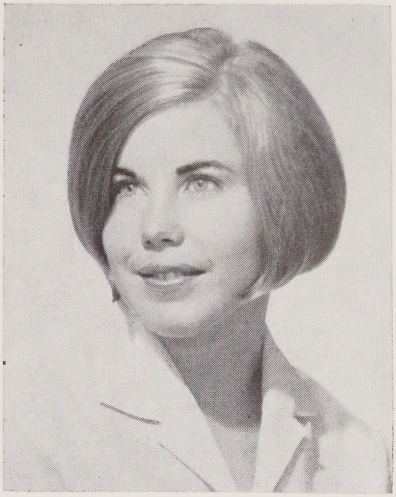
Regulations:

All resident student regulations apply to day students while they are on campus.

Day students must sign the agreement for the use of cars on campus before the privilege is granted.

Day students usually cooperate in helping to provide transportation for off-campus retreats, class trips, and for individual resident students whenever possible.

Queens Christian Association



EMILY GAY BODENHAMER
President

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Queens Christian Association is to provide opportunity for individual Christian growth and discovery through an understanding of the Christian faith and its relationship to the challenges of everyday life and also to provide stimulation for honest searching and questioning on the part of each individual.

ORGANIZATION

Every student, faculty member, and staff member of the college is a member of the Queens Christian Association. The association is directed by a cabinet made up of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, day student representative, freshman class co-ordinator, and the chairmen of the various committees. There is one faculty advisor.

The Queens Christian Association is affiliated with the National Student YWCA, and through this channel participates in the National Student Christian Federation and the World Student Christian Federation.

Activities

In the program of the Christian Association many of the areas of responsibility are delegated to various committees. The committees along with the cabinet plan and carry out numerous activities throughout the year. Among the regular activities are chapel programs, Wednesday evening vespers, dormitory devotionals, study groups, service projects in the community, and off-campus retreats. In addition, there are special seasonal activities and services.

Interested students are encouraged to serve on committees, to take part in the activities planned, and to bring to the cabinet their suggestions.

Recreation Association

Mary Jane Brown
President

Purpose

The Recreation Association strives to stimulate interest in and to plan a program of recreation to suit the needs of each student, to promote recreation for enjoyment, and to help develop a student's idea of sportsmanship.

Organization and Membership

Each student attending Queens College is a member of the Recreation Association and is entitled to enter into any sports or special activities and to use all Recreation Association facilities, subject to the college regulations.

To govern the activities of the association there is an elected council made up of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, class representatives, a day student representative, a publicity chairman, a Dolphin Club representative, committee heads, and a faculty advisor from the physical education department.

Activities

Throughout the year such intramural activities as basketball, tennis, ping pong, volleyball, swimming, singing, and art competitions are held. Extramural clubs include basketball, tennis, volleyball, and dancing. Activities that any student can enjoy are bicycle riding, hiking, "sings," swimming, and informal games.

Playdays are held in the fall and spring, and a Stunt Night is held in November. These are based on class competition.

Campus movies are shown once a month, and the Recreation Association also sponsors certain social events including informal combo parties.

Awards

Group and individual awards are given at the end of each year. The President's Trophy is awarded to the class with the most outstanding intramural record. The Best Sportsmanship Trophy is awarded to a senior for outstanding achievement.

Sorority Life

Sorority Life

The Greek letter sororities are secret societies made up of women who choose to establish a close affiliation with one another for the years of their college life and thereafter as college and sorority alumnae. These sororities have as their objectives the promotion of intellectual achievement and the development of high moral and social standards. These groups strive for a spirit of cooperation with the administration, with one another, and with the independent students on the campus.

Through varied activities, sorority life provides the student with numerous worth-while experiences. Sunday night supper is served in the houses, open house is held twice a month, and fruit juice, donuts, and candy apples are sold in the dormitories by individual groups. Parties, banquets, dances, picnics, and other activities are sponsored yearly by the members. Each sorority has programs which are beneficial to persons other than sorority members and range from aid to underprivileged and crippled children, work with orphanages, nursing service, rehabilitation, and settlement schools to aid and scholarships to individual students.

Sorority life is valuable to the individual in that it serves as one way to stimulate scholarship and makes possible a phase of group training which is part of modern education. Sorority membership makes contacts for the students with those of other institutions and with sorority alumnae in the years after graduation.

Sorority Obligations

When accepting a bid to a sorority, a student automatically pledges herself to meet certain obligations:

She promises to meet all financial obligations.

She promises to maintain creditable scholarship.

All sororities require, for initiation, a scholastic average of C or above.

She promises to become a contributing member of her sorority, to share chapter responsibilities and duties, to work for the good of the sorority and Panhellenic.

Financial obligations vary slightly for each sorority. Pledge fees range from $15 to $25. Pledge dues are approximately $5 to $10 a month. Initiation fees range from $50 to $75, and active dues from $7.50 to $10 a month. Sorority pins start at about $10, and can go as high as $100, depending on the number and types of jewels, although the average is approximately $25.

Panhellenic Council

Nancy Elizabeth Day
President

On the Queens campus there are five national sororities. When a student joins one of these, she is automatically a member of the Panhellenic group. Because there are too many Panhellenic members to hold effective meetings, there is a smaller group composed of the president, two delegates and an alternate from each sorority; it is the Panhellenic Council. Since all of the sororities have a great deal in common in their aims, standards, and interests, they coordinate their activities through this council which emphasizes cooperation among the groups and directs inter-sorority functions. Another responsibility of the council is to formulate and administer rush plans, rules, and policies.

Once a year the sororities compete for the trophy given at the Sorority Sing. In the fall Panhellenic sponsors a weekend of activities for all students at Queens.

Members of Panhellenic Council:

Rush Weekend and How to Choose

Rush weekend is a period of from three to four days in which girls wishing to join a sorority are invited to rush parties given by the various sorority chapters.

In choosing a sorority it is unwise for a student to make a decision about a group until she has met its members and those of other groups. The "rushee" should respect and admire the standards of the group she selects.

There are no set rules for rating a sorority. The "rushee" should join the group that appeals to her; she should not be influenced by outsiders. Her own decision is the only one that is important since all groups are worthy of membership. Sororities change; the group to which relatives and friends have belonged may not be the one in which she will find her closest friends. She should, therefore, choose the sorority for the girls in the present group, not for its history or past reputation.

Sorority members respect a "rushee's" decision during rush and are constantly reminded of her freedom of choice. For sorority members there is only one stated rush rule: No sorority member can be alone or with a group from her sorority talking to freshmen about her particular sorority or reflecting in a derogatory manner on other sororities with expressed intent to rush.

Details of rush are included in the Panhellenic Handbook.

Student Activities

Student Activities

Student Organizations

The Art Club

The Art Club is an organization formed to promote interest in and offer opportunity for learning about the arts. Membership is open to all interested students.

The Basketball Club

For those who enjoy sports, the Basketball Club provides an opportunity for fun and exercise. The club sponsors informal games and tournaments designed to help improve skills and interclass competition.

The Biology Club

Any Queens College student who is interested in the field of biology may seek membership in the Biology Club. Student Government Association Bulletin

This is a publication put out weekly to keep students informed of events and important dates of the coming week. It also provides information concerning the chapel programs, concerts, and lectures that will occur during each week.

Traditions

College Reception

On the first Wednesday evening of the college year, a reception honors new students. It provides an opportunity for these students to meet members of the faculty and administration.

Senior Recognition

At an early chapel assembly of each year special honor is paid to the seniors by the administration, faculty, and students. The faculty and seniors wear academic robes and participate in the first formal academic procession of the year.

Freshman Week

Freshman week begins rather unexpectedly sometime shortly after the beginning of college in the fall. This week is planned and carried out by the sophomore class in an effort to "officially" welcome the freshmen to Queens.

Concert and Lecture Series

As a part of the year's program of educational assemblies, the college sponsors a series of lectures and concerts by speakers and artists from the fields of science, literature, politics, music, art, drama, international relations, education, and sociology. In addition, there are art films throughout the year.

These programs are presented at morning convocations and in the evenings. There is a cooperative arrangement for events produced by the Charlotte Symphony, the Charlotte Opera Association, and the Little Theater. The series is financed by the student activity fee and is planned by committees of faculty and students.

Stunt Night

The annual inter-class Stunt Night, sponsored by the Recreation Association, is held in November. Each class elects two students to serve as stunt night co-chairmen. Various members of each class participate in an on-stage skit, while the remainder of the class makes up a gallery. The script, costumes, music, and set should show originality and ingenuity. After the script has been written it is submitted to the Dean of Students for approval. The judges of the stunts are members of the faculty and the staff of the college. Each year two trophies are awarded: one to the class presenting the best stunt and one to the class with the best gallery.

Christmas Celebration

The Yule Log Ceremony: The Yule Log Ceremony, established in 1963 as an annual event, heralds the Christmas season. The ceremony of burning the Yule log is derived from a centuries-old British tradition, and each part of the ceremony has an allegorical meaning based on ancient superstitions.

At the ceremony each person is given a sprig of holly, symbolizing her woes of the past years. The yule log is carried through the crowd so that each can touch it with a holly sprig to ward off evil spirits. The log is then burned, and each holly sprig is cast into the fire.

Singing of Christmas carols takes place, and seasonal refreshments are served.

Boar's Head Dinner: In keeping with the English tradition which forms such an important part in the background of Queens College, Charlotte, the annual Boar's Head Dinner, a part of the tradition of Queens College, Oxford, has become one of the most cherished events of the year. This dinner is the last formal event before the departure for the Christmas holidays. After the dinner, students gather around the Christmas tree in Burwell Hall and listen while girls who have received engagement rings or fraternity pins since the previous Christmas "tell the President" their news. Immediately following these activities, a special Christmas worship service in Belk Chapel is presented by the freshman class.

Student Government Installation

The President of the Student Government Association and the Dean of Students plan a day in the spring when the student body officers are officially installed in a special chapel program.

May Day

In a colorful pageant sponsored by the May Day Committee, Queens crowns her Queen of the May during the annual May Day festivities. The queen and her court are elected from all four classes; the queen is always a senior.

Attendance at College Exercises

All students are expected to attend chapel on Wednesday, assembly on Friday, convocations, and events scheduled on the Lecture-Concert Series.

Each student shall be allowed a maximum of seven absences per semester from chapel, assemblies, and convocations. Any absence in excess of seven will result in the loss of two quality points per absence.

All candidates for degrees are required to be present for commencement rehearsal, baccalaureate service, and the commencement convocation.

Tests and Examinations

Permission to make up tests and final examinations must be received from the Dean of the College or from the Dean of Students.

Grading and Quality Point System

A—exceptional work .... 3 quality points per semester hour

C—average work ..... 1 quality point per semester hour

D—poor work ..... 0 quality points per semester hour

F—failing work .... minus 1 quality point per semester hour

I—incomplete work; when this work is completed the student may receive any grade from A to F.

Physical education courses are graded satisfactory (S) or unsatisfactory (U).

Students receiving grades below C at mid-semester will be notified. At the end of each semester, grades will be reported for all academic and physical education courses.

Requirements for Class Standing and Graduation

The requirement for graduation is a minimum of 120 semester hours with a cumulative quality point average of at least 1.0 and a specified program of physical education as stated in the Queens College catalogue.

	Semester Hours	Quality Points
Sophomore	24	18
Junior	54	48
Senior	90	84
Graduation	120	120

Exemption from Physical Education Activities

Each student is expected to participate in the college physical education program. Students requesting to be exempt from physical education activities for medical reasons must have such requests made through the college physician. Chronic conditions which would warrant exemption are to be noted on the student's medical examination forms upon admission to the college each year and reviewed by the college physician. Other conditions are regarded as acute and would ordinarily be brought to his attention as emergency situations or from the report of the local attending physician.

Eligibility to Continue

To remain in college a student must pass 18 semester hours of work during a session with a quality point average as follows:

.5 to return the second year
.8 to return the third year
.9 to return the fourth year

Dean's List

The Dean's List consists of names of students achieving unusually high scholarship. Students on this list must carry not less than 15 semester hours and must achieve not less than three A's and two B's in academic subjects. Students who are doing practice teaching and carrying only 12 hours of work must have three A's and one B in academic subjects.

- ELIGIBILITY (to represent the college and hold office)

  Students (including transfers) who maintain a quality point average of 1.0 or more the preceding semester are on the list of eligibility during the current semester.

  Freshmen are considered on the list of eligibility until mid-semester.

  Eligibility also depends upon chapel and assembly attendance.

  Students on probation are not eligible to represent the college.

The Jernigan Student Center

The Jernigan Student Center is the hub of student life and activity. The second floor houses offices and meeting rooms for Student Legislature, Resident Student Council, Queens Christian Association, Recreation Association, publications, and the Judical Board. Information Concerning Student Health

The health of the student is the direct responsibility of the office of the Dean of Students and the college physician. Three registered nurses assist in carrying out the health program; one nurse is available at all hours. In case of an emergency, students should have the resident counselor or the house president call or go to the Infirmary immediately.

Information Necessary for All Students:

Each new student is required to have a health examination by her own physician before entering the college.

Other students must have annual summer examinations by their physicians.

If any required immunizations have not been completed before registration, the student must have them done at her own expense.

Infirmary Regulations:

Each bed-patient should take to the Infirmary the following items: toothbrush and paste, wash cloth, soap, towel, pajamas, and one blanket.

Infirmary regulations will be posted, and hours for treatment must be observed except for emergencies. Weighing must be done during consultation hours.

Queens Cues

Cues for Freshmen

Making summer plans . . .

August is getting nearer and everyone is quite busy—you should be too! Don't wait until the last minute rush to begin making plans. Begin now with the countless little things, such as sewing name tags on sheets, towels, and clothing. There are so many details that you may forget unless you re-read the instructions from the college and this Student Handbook. Throughout the summer you have been receiving letters from your student advisor, other students, and the staff. Do not hesitate to ask questions which may arise, when you answer these letters. When you receive your roommate's address, it is such a good idea to write her and become acquainted before your arrival. Together, perhaps both of you can decide who will bring what (irons, hair-dryers, typewriters, etc.). After all, there is no reason for your room to be overly crowded with two of everything!

About your clothes . . .

It is important for you to get your clothes ready ahead of time, but do not spend days and days shopping. You will enjoy buying clothes in Charlotte. A fashion show will be presented by the students during orientation week and will give you a good idea of the type of clothes that you will need.

For taking care of your clothes you will probably need an iron but not an ironing board. You will also need a large laundry bag. The laundry regulations change from year to year—you will receive a copy of regulations soon after your arrival at Queens. Washing machines, driers, and a dry cleaning machine are located on the ground floors of Wallace and Barnhardt Residence Halls.

There are several articles of clothing that you will need. A white dress or white skirt and blouse will be a must! You will also need a simple, short formal or cocktail dress. May we suggest that you bring more tailored clothing for on-campus wear—it makes washing and ironing much easier.

About the furnishing of your room . . .

Decorating your room is one of the most enjoyable parts of dormitory life. You can either bring your furnishings from home or—to make packing easier—shop together with your roommate here in Charlotte.

. . . Curtains

The approximate dimensions for windows and closets in Long, Morrison, and Watkins Dormitories are as follows: windows, 72 by 80 inches; closet openings, 80 by 30 inches (closets in Long, Morrison, and Watkins do not have doors and need closet curtains). The windows in Belk are 58 by 62 inches, and in Albright, 82 by 25 inches.The windows in Harris are 45 inches by 75 inches. In Long, Morrison, and Watkins there are two windows in each room, but these windows are side by side. The above measurement includes the width of these two windows together. In the corner rooms there are four windows. In Belk there is only one window in each room. In Albright Dormitory there are two windows in each room, but they are separated by a wide wall space. Many girls like to cover the wall space as well as the windows, and the dimensions of the wall space, including the windows, are 82 by 133 inches. Draw curtains must be used in Albright. For the other dormitories most students find that panel curtains or cafe curtains are more practical than the ruffled type. They are easier to hang and easier to iron. All curtain rods are furnished.

. . . For Your Bed

Each room is furnished with two single beds. You and your roommate could both bring a set of single spreads and enjoy a change. If you prefer, however, the two of you could shop together for one set. You will find that you will need at least six sheets (contours are nice!) and probably four pillow cases. One heavy blanket will be sufficient. Also, don't forget a pillow and mattress cover.

. . . Bath Accessories

At least six or eight towels and washcloths are necessary. If you will be living in Long, Morrison, or Watkins, you should bring a bath mat. The rooms in Long, Morrison, and Watkins are arranged in suites for four girls who share a bathroom. The rooms in Belk and Albright Dormitories are double rooms with shower rooms located on each hall.

. . . Other Furnishings

There are other things which you will need. For example, an alarm clock is almost a necessity (especially for those 8 o'clock classes!). A study pillow may be helpful, and you will enjoy a radio or record player. Bulletin boards are provided in each room, so do not try to bring one. Such things as a blotter for your desk and snapshots from home help to brighten up your room. However, do not overload your trunks, for you will find that you will acquire many, many new souvenirs. Also, you will need a waste basket and a small drying rack. These items, too, are easier to buy in Charlotte.

■ About your arrival and orientation week . . .

When your parents bring you to Queens, there are many nice places in Charlotte to stay—the Savoy-Barringer Motor Inn and Manger Motel, both on North Tryon Street, the Coliseum Motel on Independence Boulevard, the Red Carpet Inn on East Morehead Street, the Holiday Inn, and many others.

Let your F.A.C. know when you will be arriving on campus.

There is an orientation program for all new students. It is certain to be a week of things to learn, people to meet, and places to go. The purpose of Orientation Week is to help you learn about life at Queens and in the Charlotte community. There will be discussion groups about all phases of campus life and conferences with your faculty advisor about your academic schedule. The Recreation Association sponsors a skit night, and Queens Christian Association a vesper service. The Social Committee plans a dance as well as a fashion show. It is a wonderful way to begin your college life.

■ ABOUT YOUR SOCIAL LIFE AT QUEENS . . .

Among the many social events of the year, one fall and one spring weekend have a special place. During each of these weekends there is a formal dance. Panhellenic Council and Recreation Association will sponsor informal combo parties throughout the year. You will be told all about these weekends later. In addition to these planned functions, freshmen will be allowed to date on all weekend nights.

■ ABOUT MONEY MATTERS . . .

Before you come, it is a good idea to plan a few financial matters with your family. Decide how much spending money you will need and when you will get it. (You will need $50 for books at the first of the year.) Many girls find that checking accounts are convenient. If you do not have a checking account, however, you can deposit money in the college bank for safe keeping and draw it out whenever necessary. Often parents find that it is convenient to deposit a definite sum in the college bank at certain times of the year. If you do have a checking account, the college bank is a good place to cash checks.

■ ABOUT YOUR TALENTS . . .

Queens needs you. The college always needs new ideas and talents. There are campus organizations and clubs to suit you. Read over the section of this handbook entitled "Student Activities." If you budget your time well, you will be able to participate in several activities and still have plenty of time for studying.

And how does all this add up? The total is Queens College. You are entering a new community and you are leaving home, but be sure to keep in touch.
